SIR MICHAEL HERBERT
PASSES AWAY

Statesman Who Was Honored in America as Well as in England Goes to His Last Rest.

DAVOS-PLATZ, Switzerland, Sept. 30.—Sir Michael Herbert, the British Ambassador to the United States, died at 1:40 this afternoon. He had gradually been growing worse since his arrival here, but his death was sudden and unexpected.

A dispatch from Paris on September 12th said that Lady Herbert, wife of the British Ambassador at Washington, was devotedly nursing her delicate husband back to health at Davos-Platz. With the hope of restoring her husband, Lady Herbert was lingering at Davos-Platz, though the resort was deserted at that time of the year.

Lady Herbert was formerly Miss Lella Wilson, daughter of Richard T. Wilson, the New York banker, and is related to the Vanderbilt, Ogden, Goetz and Astor families.

LOVED AND HONORED.

The death of Sir Michael Herbert was announced at today's session of the Alaska Board of Commissioners by Chief Justice Alverstone. It was supposed due to rapid consumption, from which the Ambassador is known to have suffered from the time of his appointment to Washington. Counsel on both sides paid tribute to the dead Ambassador.

Counsel was in the middle of his argument when Lord Alverstone suddenly laid up his hand and stopped the proceedings, with intense emotion.

The members of the tribunal have just learned with the deepest sorrow of the death of Sir Michael Herbert, who in behalf of Great Britain, negotiated the treaty for which this tribunal was constituted and under which it is at this moment sitting. I cannot trust myself to express the feeling of grief which this announcement has caused to every member of this tribunal, and to many others who had the great privilege of Herbert's friendship. It is no language exaggeration to say that no man ever brought to the discharge of his duties, his ideas, and few, if any, greater qualifications. His majesty and the British nation have lost a devoted servant and many of us have lost a cherished personal friend.

The dramatic silence which followed was broken by Jacob M. Dickinson of American counsel, who rose and expressed in behalf of the bar and people of the United States intense sorrow at the death of the man whose qualities Lord Alverstone had so fully described. In token of respect for the deceased Mr. Dickinson moved the commission's adjournment.

Sir Edward Carson, K. C., the Solicitor-General, of counsel for Great Britain, in seconding the motion, referred with intense emotion to Sir Michael Herbert's public and private character. The commissioners afterward arose from their seats and the sitting was suspended until tomorrow.

Lady Herbert was with her husband and Sir Michael Herbert's brother, the Earl of Pembroke, and the Countess of Pembroke were also at his death-bed. Lord Pembroke telegraphed to Foreign Minister Lansdowne, announcing the Ambassador's sudden death and asking the British Government to arrange with the Swiss and French authorities for permission to transfer the remains through their territories to England. The funeral will probably occur at the family estate at Salisbury.

Ambassador Choate was with Lord Lansdowne, paying his usual visit at the time the telegram announcing the Ambassador's death arrived. Its contents were communicated to the United States Ambassador, who expressed sympathy in behalf of the whole American people. Mr. Choate also telegraphed condolences to Lady Herbert.

ROOSEVELT GRIEVED.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—President Roosevelt was deeply grieved when informed of the death of Sir Michael Herbert, the British Ambassador to this country. He and Sir Michael and Lady Herbert were personal as well as official friends, and he has sent a personal message of condolence to Lady Herbert.

MILITARY

Cripple Creek is Seeing
Some Stormy Times
Among Miners.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Sept. 30.—Information will be filed in the District Court today charging George Kyner, manager and editor of the Victor Record; W. L. Sweet, the circulator, and W. S. and W. G. Langdon, linotype operators, who were arrested by the military, charged with malicious libel and slander. An affidavit made by Thomas Scanlon, a member of Company K, First Regiment, was prepared by Judge-Advocate Thomas McClelland and handed to Deputy District Attorney Cole. The affidavit sets forth that Scanlon was designated as a spotter in connection with the arrest of Robert Murphy in the Victor Record office.

Harry Scott has been engaged as counsel for the men thrown into the "bull pen" and if the prisoners cannot secure their release on bond he will apply for writs of habeas corpus in the District Court to the end that the men may secure their freedom until the trial on information.

Judge-Advocate McClelland, when asked why the entire force was arrested, said they were all equally guilty in publishing the alleged libelous article in the Victor Record and that every attempt would be made to send all the men arrested to the penitentiary. The Victor Record is securing a new force today and will be able to continue publication.

C. E. Woodward, president of the Typographical Union, discussing the arrest of the Record force, says that no greater outrage could be perpetrated.

"I was a soldier in the Philippines and was through all the stirring times there, but I saw nothing so boldly brazen and in violation of constitutional rights as took place in Victor last night," said he. "It is time that something should be done to resist these high-handed measures."

Tom Foster and T. McClellan, union men who have been in the "bull pen" for thirteen days, were released today. They say they were at all times intimidated and were fearful of losing their lives.

TILLMAN FACES JURY
ON MURDER CHARGE

JAMES TILLMAN, THE ACCUSED.

LEXINGTON, S. C., Sept. 30.—In the Tillman trial today, Dr. J. H. McIntosh testified that he rode in the ambulance with Mr. Gonzales to the hospital after the shooting and that they were alone in the ambulance.

Asked if Gonzales said anything to him on the way to the hospital, the doctor said Gonzales asked him to sit a frankly if he was mortally wounded. Witness said he told him he was afraid he was and that Gonzales said:

"Yes, I think the fellow got me."

The doctor then told of the course of treatment pursued and said he believed death to have resulted from the gunshot wound.

J. A. Hoyt, of the editorial staff of the Columbia State, saw Mr. Gonzales in the State office about fifteen minutes after the shooting. Asked if Gonzales made any statement to him, Mr. Hoyt said he had told him all about the shooting.

Objection was raised by the defense to the admission of the statement which Mr. Hoyt said Mr. Gonzales made to him regarding the shooting and a lengthy argument ensued.

BRAVE WOMAN WAS IN WRECK

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—With a shipwrecked crew brought to the port today on the Panama packet City of Paris was Mrs. Anne Nell, the only woman on board the ill-fated British ship. Wemyss Bay, which went through first a moon and then a panner, broke the sailing record from Newcastle, N. S. W., to Mazatlan, Mexico, making it in 40 days and finally crashed on the rocks under the Creston Island lighthouse, where it is slowly going to pieces. She is the wife of the vessel's steward and was first to tell the story of the wreck. She said:

"After a most stormy voyage we made Mazatlan just as the Mexicans were celebrating the national holiday. Things on board were near a crisis, the sailors were brooding and there was muttering. Captain C. M. McLaren, fearing trouble, took his ship over under the lighthouse at Creston Island and dropped anchor there. 'We waited there a day but nobody would work on account of the holidays. It was the night of the 16th of September when trouble commenced. I was sleeping in the room next to the captain's cabin. Suddenly the ship pitched forward and the lurch threw me out of my bunk. I knew that the anchor chain had parted. There was a frightful sound of crunching and breaking steel plates. 'I rushed on deck in time to learn that the ship—she was 21 years old—had struck squarely on the pinnacle of the rocks and then listed to starboard, where she hung, beaten broadside by every breaker. With difficulty the boats were launched and in my night gown, and drenched to the skin, I went down the ship's side on the rope ladder, and fell rather than jumped into the boat. 'No sooner was I safe in the first of the boats lowered than Captain McLaren scrambled down the ladder and dropped in. We were in danger of being crushed between the steamer and the rocks, so I caught up an oar and rowed my boat. We soon reached the steamer General, where we were kindly treated. The captain remained on the General until the sea was smooth. He had his ship's papers with him. Not a life was lost and we all came up on the Para except Captain McLaren. The fittings of the Wemyss Bay and part of her cargo will be saved. 'The returning sailors are loud in their praises of Mrs. McLaren's heroism."

Goldman Made Apology
and All is Now
Harmony.

Judge Fritz Orders Oak-landers to Air Troubles at Home.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—The suit for libel in which Adolph Goldman was plaintiff and ex-Mayor L. W. Snow was defendant was continued this morning in Judge Fritz court in this city.

Immediately upon the calling of the case, T. C. O'Connor, attorney for the defense, made a motion for a dismissal, which was denied; Judge Fritz citing the necessity of hearing the prosecution's testimony in Police Court cases before the judge may grant dismissal.

Mr. Goldman then took the stand and testified that in San Francisco, on March 12, Mr. R. W. Snow presented to him (Goldman's) attorney a bill for $1000, which the defendant claimed was for special attendance during periods of insanity suffered by Goldman.

The plaintiff stated that his health was perfect, always had been, and that such attendance as stated in the bill was unnecessary, and as such he had refused payment. Further, he said that instead of his ever owing money to Mr. Snow, the latter was in the plaintiff's debt to the extent of $600, which sum the ex-Mayor had borrowed in small amounts at different times during the period of their friendship, extending over three years. Goldman said Mr. Snow had befriended him several times and that he was grateful, and he was sorry to have to acknowledge that he had been rather persistent and unduly strenuous in the matter of collecting the $600.

He further testified that once when he called to collect the debt Mr. Snow had explained to his satisfaction that settlement would not be at that time convenient, and it was only on the impulse of the moment, Mr. Goldman explained, that he had had a warrant issued for Mr. Snow's arrest. However, he had apologized profusely to Mr. Snow and the ex-Mayor had apologized to him, and they had adjusted their unpleasantness to their mutual satisfaction; therefore, it was the wish of both parties that the suit be dismissed.

Judge Fritz ordered the dismissal, intimating that if Oakland people must wrangle and air their woes in court it was his earnest wish that they would use the Oakland police courts for their purpose, as the San Francisco judges had their time fully occupied attending to troubles on their own side of the bay.

WERE MARRIED IN SECRET.

BERKELEY, Sept. 30.—After the secret had been carefully guarded for two months, it leaked out today that Miss Blanche Whiting, a social favorite of this city, and a daughter of the late Town Trustee, N. G. Whiting, was married on July 23d to George W. Collignon, Jr., at a ceremony at Postmaster George Schmidt, and an actor of considerable prominence.

The marriage license was secured at Martinez on July 21st, and the ceremony was performed at Schmidville, a few miles north of this city, on the following day. The young people were driven in a buggy to Schmidville by Postmaster Schmidt, for whom the town was named. The Rev. R. L. Halsey, pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, was the fourth member of the party. The nuptials were quietly solemnized in the First Baptist Church of Schmidville.

Young Collignon strenuously denied the marriage when first asked for the confirmation of the news, but afterwards admitted its correctness when confronted with the proofs of the wedding.

The leaking out of the secret now explains why young Collignon caused quite a sensation here a few days ago by refusing the attention paid by Maurice White to his wife. Collignon is said to have made dire threats against White if he did not cease his attentions.

A few days ago Mrs. Collignon departed with her mother for Montreal, Canada, it being given out that they went away to settle a valuable estate. Young Collignon is now living with his stepfather on University avenue.

OLD BAY FARM ISLAND IS FINALLY SETTLED BY COURT.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 30.—Frank Castro was adjudged guilty of battery today by Judge Samuel in the case of Silva vs. Castro, a damage suit for $298 for alleged injuries received at the hands of defendant, and judgment was given against him in the sum of $25 and costs. This is the fifth to the famous feud which began last August on Bay Farm Island and has been aired at various times since then.

Castro was present today and took the stand in his own behalf. Among other statements which aroused interest among the sympathizers on both sides, who filled the court room, was one to the effect that his challenge to Silva to fight "wasn't nothing but a joke." Attorney St. Sure, speaking for Silva, inquired if his attack on plaintiff with a pitchfork was also a joke.

In giving his opinion, Judge Samuel said: "There is no question in my mind but that the defendant is guilty of battery. Even though the plaintiff used insulting language that did not give the defendant the right to attack him. Although the damage done was slight, yet the law demands that I impose damages, against the defendant, of $25 and costs." The latter amounted to $6.50. At this rate it cost Castro just $10.50 per prod with his pitchfork.

SHOWERY WEATHER FOR GOLF PLAYERS.

Some of the matches proved somewhat one-sided. Mrs. Deering won from Miss Higgins at the thirteenth hole, 7 up, 5 to play.

Not only has the ambulance appliances for lifting injured horses and depositing them inside but it has a complete chest of emergency instruments.

In speaking of the ambulance this morning Dr. Carpenter said: "The ambulance will be equipped with block and tackle that will enable one man unaided to lift 1000 pounds. No matter whether the animal is on the ground or in an excavation or well we have facilities to handle it."

The ambulance is now on exhibition at Westmouth's carriage manufactory on Park street. It will be on the streets and in use by the first of October.

WILL HOLD A BIG CONFERENCE.

There is a movement on foot to arrange a great missionary conference to be held in the First Presbyterian Church, Oakland, December 4th, 5th and 6th. This conference is under the direction of a committee, appointed by a joint committee of all the young people's organizations of the denominations, Methodist, Baptist, Congregational, Presbyterian and Methodist South.

The chairman of this committee is well known throughout the country as a missionary enthusiast, Rev. Dwight E. Potter, and with him are associated a large number of the leading spirits in religious work.

The committee has held a number of meetings and large plans have been made to make this the greatest missionary conference held in the West.

The plan contemplated the securing of two thousand delegates from two hundred churches in the ten counties around the bay. The committee has decided to call this the Young Peoples' International Missionary Conference, and have opened headquarters in the First Presbyterian Church, where the members of the several committees meet to discuss plans, issue their literature and letters, and present bulletins. It was first contemplated to have the conference on November 6th and 7th, but when the full scheme was duplicated, it was readily seen that it would be impossible to make a success at so early a date.

Letters are being sent to secure the names and addresses of all the pastors and secretaries of the young peoples organizations in all churches in the ten counties included in the conference: Alameda, San Francisco, Contra Costa, Santa Clara, San Mateo, Marin, Solano, Napa, Sonoma, Sacramento, that communications may be addressed there frequently regarding the plans and progress of the work.

The purposes of the conference are set forth in their slogan. One thousand delegates from 100 churches, 20 volunteers for mission service, double missionary offerings in the churches.

The conference will undoubtedly be a great success and will do great good in summing up the missionary cause. The officers are as follows: Program Committee—Chairman, Rev. D. E. Potter, Rev. M. Slaughter, Rev. Owen E. Hotte, Rev. Miles B. Fisher, W. M. Bird, Entertainment Committee—Chairman, Wood, chairman, Earl D. White, Miss Dell Jewell, A. M. Sutherland, R. J. Burks, Prayer circle—Rev. Owen Hotte, H. L. Sorenson, committee; Earl S. Bingham, chairman.

AMERICAN COUNSEL ARGUES.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Hannis Taylor of counsel for the United States at today's session of the Alaskan Boundary Commission, continued his argument dealing with the international law phase of the dispute. He declared that construction put by the Canadians on various terms employed in the treaty was not justified by international law, especially the reference to the general trend of the coast and the mention made of Canada.

THE LATEST NEWS.

NEW DEAL IN S. P. ROAD.

President Burt May Be Made Manager of Line.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—The railroad world is agog with the gossip that President Burt of the Union Pacific will assume the position of general manager of the Southern Pacific.

News has come out of the East that authoritative information has been given to this effect and that the change will be made at the directors' meeting of the Harriman line, which takes place during the coming month.

Color is lent to the story at this end of the line from the fact that Julius Kruttschnitt, general manager of the Southern Pacific, has been summoned to New York and is now in the metropolis with his chief, Mr. Harriman.

Mr. Herrin, counsel for the Southern Pacific, returned only recently from Europe and during his absence from here had long conferences with Mr. Harriman regarding the Southern Pacific.

STANDING OF KRUTTSCHNITT.
Julius Kruttschnitt is at present not only general manager of the Southern Pacific but is the fourth vice president and assistant to the president of the company as well.

In San Francisco the work of Mr. Kruttschnitt is supreme with regard to matters concerning the Southern Pacific. He is head of the executive as well as of the operating department, and has been practically doing the work of two men.

J. C. Stubbs, third vice president of the road, with headquarters at Chicago, ranks Kruttschnitt, he being in charge of the traffic department for the Harriman roads, to-wit: the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, Oregon Short Line, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific Companies. He reports to Harriman and the directors direct.

GENERAL MANAGER.
President Burt of the Union Pacific is the general manager of that company also. Both he and Mr. Kruttschnitt are known in the railroad world as operating men, but the latter is said to have a slight advantage in this regard.

Mr. Kruttschnitt was brought out here from New Orleans by the late Collis P. Huntington on account of his ability as an operating man. He was formerly in charge of the Atlantic lines of the Southern Pacific, that is, those east of El Paso. He was made general manager here, in charge of the operating department, and has since held that position, but has had other duties tacked on to his work.

BURT AS AN EXECUTIVE.
President Burt of the Union Pacific is not only an operating man but is said to be one of considerable executive ability. The gossip in this city is to the effect that Mr. Burt may be made in charge of the executive department.

In the latter department one has enough to do looking after the road and the method of its operation without being hampered with caring for its policy, looking after the purchases and various other matters connected with such an important function.

On the big roads in the East the two departments are being separated, the better to conduct both and to make greater showing in each. It is for this reason that the big systems have three or four vice presidents, each man having his special department.

Horace G. Burt, president and general manager of the Union Pacific, is not unacquainted in this city. He has been here many times and in fact has traversed the entire road, and he is, besides, the particular friend of Mr. Harriman.

CHAMBERLAIN ISSUES PAMPHLET.
LONDON, Sept. 30.—Former Colonial Secretary Chamberlain has prepared a pamphlet which is in the nature of a manifesto and which will be issued Monday on the subject of his financial policy pronouncement. It sets forth definitely Mr. Chamberlain's views and adheres to the points he emphasizes in his Birmingham speeches, including imposing a duty on crude stuffs.

The Midlothian, Edinburgh, Scotland, liberal association has adopted Lord Dalmeny, eldest son of the Earl of Rosebery, as its candidate for parliament at the next general election. Lord Dalmeny, in his address, accepting the nomination, said he was unalterably opposed to Joseph Chamberlain's preferential trade proposal.

POLICE COURT FINES.
The total amount of fines and forfeitures collected in the Police Court for the month of September is $124,70, of which sum the city will get $69,70 and $128 goes into the county treasury.

FOOTPADS DO NOT SUCCEED.

Merchant Was Brave
So He Saved
His Cash.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—Just at the closing hour of the place, 10:30 o'clock last night, a brace of thugs, armed and masked, entered the grocery store conducted by Bernan & Ramblin, and under the muzzles of their drawn revolvers commanded M. Bernan, one of the partners, to hand over the cash. But Bernan did not comply with their command. Instead he closed the cash register with a bang and called upon his partner, who was at work in the office, for assistance.

Becoming frightened at the cries of the grocer and apparently forgetting to use their weapons, the two footpads became alarmed and ran out of the door. Both Bernan and Ramblin followed them to the door, saw them run to Stockton street and then make their escape around the corner. After the robbers fled the police were notified, and shortly after 4 o'clock this morning Policemen Robert Connor and Thomas Larkin, who were working on the case, picked up three suspicious looking characters on Pine street. They were registered on the detinue book and later Bernan and Ramblin were called at the prison and identified one of the men. The others he was not so sure of, but as to the identity of the one he picked out he insisted that there could be no mistake.

The men detained on suspicion of being the grocery store robbers are Louis N. Bellamy, A. G. Nottingham and J. W. Adams. Bellamy, the man who was identified by the grocer, is believed by the police to be an ex-convict, and Detective Tim Bainbridge, chief of the police identification bureau, who is looking up the records of all men not so certain that all have not done time at some of the State penal institutions.

M'LACHLAN IS A CANDIDATE.

FOUGHT OVER MONEY.
Two Italian bootblacks, Frank Cirilla and Joe Rugio, got into an altercation last night in Cooper's saloon on Seventh street, between Washington and Broadway, over a $5 gold piece. Both men were intoxicated and after passing several angry words, Cirilla drew a knife and stabbed Rugio twice, inflicting slight wounds. Cirilla was taken to the city prison and charged with drunkenness. This morning he forfeited his bail in the Police Court.

MURDERER SORRY HE IS ALIVE.

E. de Labrousse Will not Die From Wound.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 30.—E. de Labrousse, murderer of Marie Jordan, lies on a cot at the Emergency Hospital with a slight headache arising from a bullet in his jaw or cheek bone.

He was examined by Dr. Bunnell this morning. The physician was surprised at the strength of the patient and announced that there was apparently nothing the matter with him. His pulse was normal at 78 and his temperature marked 98.5-5 degrees of the thermometer.

HAS NO FEVER.
"He has no fever, and there is absolutely no inflammation resulting from the bullet wound," said the doctor. "Just where the ball lodged I do not know, as it is impossible to follow its course with a probe. In a few days the injured part may become more sensitive and it may then become possible to arrive at a conclusion as to the ball's location."

VISITED BY HIS MOTHER.
This morning the aged mother of the murderer visited him at the hospital, in company with her daughter.

The old woman was bowed down with woe, and tears sprang to her cheeks as she took a chair at the bedside of her son.

She spoke to him, but he replied in monosyllables, and declined to discuss the shooting or the events which led up to it.

At the foot of the couch sat the police officer who has been specially detailed to watch the man while he is confined in the hospital.

De Labrousse declined to make any response to the queries addressed to him about the shooting by the reporters. To the doctors he briefly replied to all questions concerning his condition, but he would not speak regarding the shooting.

EXAMINES HIS WOUND.
De Labrousse seems curious regarding the location of the bullet which he fired into his head with the intention of ending his life.

This morning he spent considerable time working his fingers up and down his neck and in and about the bones of his face and jaw.

He was evidently in search of the stray ball, but would not divulge what he had learned of its location.

He is still sorry he failed in his attempt to end his life.

STREET RAILWAY
RESUMES OPERATIONS
SAULT STE MARIE, Sept. 30.—The resumption of street railway traffic today was received in a welcome manner. Armed soldiers here and there prevented possible interference on the part of the unemployed men and the cars were crowded during the early part of the day. When the additional soldiers arrived today they were placed at points thought to be in danger of overt acts. No further trouble is anticipated for the present.

The young woman had high aspirations in seeking knowledge, all her efforts during her scholastic years being directed with a view to qualifying herself to attain success in the profession of teaching.

With this purpose in view she went through a course in the University of New York, from which place she graduated with honors in 1898.

After graduation Mrs. Fowler returned to this city and undertook educational work, attaining success in a most pronounced manner in kindergarten effort.

Subsequently she removed to Honolulu and there entered upon the profession of teaching and in it achieved distinction, until circumstances, as referred to, impelled her to change her field of usefulness.

The marriage was a quiet affair because of the opposition of both contracting parties to ostentation and the desire to avoid notoriety.

It was celebrated at the Hotel Netherlands, one of the swellest hosteleries in New York City. It was performed by Rev. Dr. Duffield, the distinguished Presbyterian minister, who is a close personal friend of the groom.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—Application for a receiver was made today before Judge Olin Wellborn for the Fresno Water Company and as a result, T. E. The litigation is stated by attorneys for the several interests involved, to be in the nature of a friendly proceeding. The company is said to be sound financially, but in order to settle certain legal knots, bonds outstanding will be retired, and new securities will be floated in their stead.

In the bill that has been filed, the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago is plaintiff, and alleges that April 1, 1890, a trust was made, by the terms of which the Fresno corporation was permitted to issue bonds in the sum of $500,000, bearing interest at 6 per cent, payable semi-annually, April and October 1st of each year.

The company's entire plant was given as security for the obligation. Only $350,000 of bonds found their way to the hands of purchasers, who are scattered through the United States, some of them living in England. Of the other $150,000 worth of bonds, $15,000 worth have been redeemed and canceled. There is outstanding bonds in the amount of $310,000, on which interest is due and unpaid, in the sum of nearly $30,000 for eighteen months.

The semi-annual payment of 6 per cent from April 1, 1902, to $9300.

It is charged in the bill filed today that sixteen per cent of the company's gross receipts, which was to have been applied annually to a sinking fund, has not been paid for the purpose, and the foreclosure of the property is desired for the reasons set forth.

LESLIE F. BLACKBURN TELLS ABOUT NEW YORK.

Well Known Oakland Politician Writes An Interesting Letter—Politics in a Big City.

Gilsey House, New York, September 24, 1903.

Editor TRIBUNE:—I have just returned from a drive over the speedway and through Central Park, thought of my friends in Oakland and wished they were along to enjoy it with me.

It seems that most of my old school-fellows, who are alive, are doing well. One of my boyhood chums, Judge Hogan, is making himself particularly popular at the present time by making things warm for the "graters" in cases that are brought before him. This term is applied to people who accept money for services rendered, in making the evidence so weak that the charges are not sustained, and especially policemen who make arrest and for a consideration fail to make a case.

Judge Hogan has caused quite a commotion in the Police Department by denouncing some police officers from the bench, after a "failure of conviction."

Speaking of the police, Chief Hodgkins of Oakland, was paid a compliment by the foremost of American detectives, my friend, Robert A. Pinkerton, the head of the great Pinkerton Detective Bureau. Pinkerton said, "Hodgkins was one of the brightest officers I had ever met. And Bob Pinkerton never pays any idle compliments."

Another Oakland official who is well thought of here by those who have "business intercourse" with him, is our friend Henry P. Dalton. The idea seems a general one around the City Hall here, that our assessor is the "right man in the right place."

I suppose you are anxious to hear what is going on in the heart of the nation, "Little Old New York."

WHEN HE ARRIVED.

Well, I landed here after the long trip, somewhat broken up. To say that I found New York badly broken up, but faintly describes the situation. What between tall buildings with three and four-story basements; the alterations necessary to the substitution of underground electricity for the horse power for street railways; the construction of conduits for telephone and telegraph wires; steam power, pipes; new water pipes for increased facilities; asphalt pavements and the island torn up from Battery to Fort George with the "subway constructions"; there are all kinds of dust, everywhere, and a man can't stir out here without putting his foot in it for the foundation.

What do you think of the blasting of a new tall building right next door to where I am stopping, the Gilsey House, Broadway and Twenty-ninth street? How would you like to be stopped, as you were about to emerge from your hotel, by a brawny laborer with a red flag in his hand and compelled to wait until it was "all over?"

Will the Island be able to stand this continual increase of its burden and suffering by unskilled excavations; or will it all collapse, as the old-fashioned generations only know of it from the descriptions of an occasional circus hunter, who visits Manhattan Island in a rowboat?

LESLIE WAS IN IT.

They had the biggest blow-out that New York has ever known, a short time ago. I was in it, I shook things up like a prolonged earthquake, blew in a great many of the show windows of the Broadway stores, telephone and telegraph wires went down and for many hours New York was isolated from the rest of the world. The newspapers say the church steeples rocked and threatened to topple over. I would not have been hurt.

Horace Greeley said: "Young man, no war." Whatever has turned the tide of emigration, the "Western man" is much in evidence at the present writing in the East. It looks as if the great success of our former Californian, Jim Keene, has made him the pioneer of other bright stars that have come out of the West—Harris, Gates, Armour, etc. They have managed to get into the East many valuable properties, corporations, etc., and have called many of their constituents and managers from the West to their assistance here.

Western men are now holding high positions everywhere in New York. They are the backbone of the old-fashioned civilization of the East. They are making things hum, and no doubt it will do the East good to wake up. But the Western men need the help of the East, the hare and the turtle, and how the turtle won the race.

MORE RESTAURANTS.

Another noticeable change here is the vast increase of restaurants and the decrease of boarding houses. New Yorkers are learning to live on the European plan, and where they eat, where they find them. Prices are still very exorbitant in first-class restaurants and good restaurants of the medium class are long distances apart. Such restaurants as we have in California, if they could be maintained here, would be a blessing as this city could not stand the money paying $2.00 for a small broiled lobster and a small lobster salad, and only being served with as much bread as would make one decent slice, such as mother used to give for our lunch at school. Every time one comes here conditions seem worse. Everything dwindles, but the price, smaller, cuter, smaller glasses, smaller, thinner cuts of meat; they never seem tired of inventing new schemes to get rich quicker.

GET RICH QUICK.

The "get-rich-quick" fever is the city's malady, and this is the spot to feel the pulse of the nation. Think of the laboring men that for months have been dragging their hard earned savings from the bank to maintain their families, while the failure to arbitrate and the difference with their employers have been a constant reminder of enforced idleness. Consider the employers with work upon their hands that should be pushed forward and the wall under the pressure of maturing obligations. Then walk down to Wall Street and listen to the grunting of the Bears and the roaring of the Bulls, and read in the newspapers that the Treasury of the United States has had to come to the assistance of those who are struggling in the vortex of wild speculation and prevent a financial disaster. And oh, for a Judge Hogan in our cupful of life to expose and slay the "graters."

PEACEFUL VALLEY.

What a foretaste of Heaven a few months' residence in one of the peaceful valleys of California would be to some of these nervous, fever-racked denizens of the East. They never know the sun is shining, some of them here, unless the sweat is pouring off when it is 100 in the shade.

Let us look on the brighter side of the picture; turn from the cobwebs and dust and gaze upon what is pictured upon the other side.

The country was more prosperous. The best rock to carry off these financial storms is the future of our railroads. Connections are being built, interests are being consolidated and the day is not far distant when great transcontinental lines will traverse from Canada and its coast shores to South America, and from ocean to ocean, all paths that will develop the country, bring plenty, and let us hope, peace to all.

HE IS IN POLITICS.

To add to my present excitement, I am here in the midst of such a political turmoil as New York has never known before. Things are red hot and still heating for the politicians, and everybody is taking a hand.

It looks like a "Tammany year." Last year Seth Low, president of Columbia College, was elected by the Fusionists. A combination of Republicans, Independents and Democrats elected him. Low's personality, being a man of refinement, and unused to mingling with the masses, has not endeared him to the rank and file. In "regarding his election," he has made enemies in his own camp among the Republicans. He has antagonized the Fire Department and Police Department by opposing legislation in their behalf. To the liquor dealers he has been a constant thorn, by reason of his opposition to the liquor traffic. The idea of New York liquor leaders, to upstart a movement for the benefit of communities, which paid none of the money.

There was an endeavor made to nominate an Independent Democrat on the Fusion ticket, instead of renominating Low; but Low's friends proved the more powerful and he has received the renomination for Mayor. Leonard Travers Jerome, who is the spectacular District Attorney, elected by the Fusionists, is an Independent Democrat and like the old maid, he may have "had hopes." Before the nomination was made, some of the papers quoted Jerome on their lips, but Jerome in their hearts. In the conversation, Jerome's aspirations died a natural death, but like the hydra-headed dragon, the other heads are now making a noise.

Congressman George B. McClellan is likely to be the Democratic choice as Low's opponent. McClellan will have to fight on his own, as the King's country, or Brooklyn, Democratic organization, strongly opposed to him on the grounds that he will wear the Tammany Boss's collar, and that the success of his bid will mean a return to the days of Boss Tweed. It looks like a very warm fight, and if it narrows down to the Democrats against the Republicans, with New York large Democratic natural majority, Low will have an up-hill battle to win out.

PRIMARY FIGHTS.

I was very much interested and amused. It was almost like a regular city election. There were a number of exciting contests—brazed bands, torchlight processions, one blaze of red fire from beginning to end, out-of-door speech-making and fun galore.

A young friend of mine was in the fight and "stumping the district." He left some of his notes lying around my room at the hotel, and I considered them public documents. I peeped into their contents. Perhaps it would surprise him to see himself in print in the California, so I ventured to try to report his speech for your paper. I have exerted myself to the best of my ability, and if it narrows down to the Democrats against the Republicans, with New York large Democratic natural majority, Low will have an up-hill battle to win out.

an enthusiastic one, for over an hour after the McAvoy lights were out. You have most of you read of the ancient king who, after conquering most of the known world, shut himself up within the walls of his strongest fortified city which he deemed impregnable. Surrounded by his flatterers and sycophants he held a great reception at which almost divine honors were paid to him. In the midst of the feasting light blazed upon the walls of the banquet hall and three words appeared, "Mene, Phares, Tekel," which interpreted meant "You have been weighed in the balance and found wanting." That night his city was entered by the enemy and he and his followers met defeat and extermination.

And so, after that stolen meeting, as McAvoy abandoned, wandered away from the spot, he read blazing in the firmament over the Twenty-third Assembly district, "McAvoy, you have been weighed in the balance and found wanting."

POLITICIANS IN HEAVEN.

"Gentlemen, no doubt, many politicians go to Heaven. What do you laughing at? Perhaps it is like any other business, some of them may have to retire from active life some before they end to enable them to think over any little shortcomings undisturbed."

I remember a fine German fellow who opened a small saloon, a very good man of education, a genial spirit and a warm friend, but prosperity ruined him. He enlarged his saloon, bought a new chair, tenements in the vicinity, and turned his whole attention to the accumulation of wealth. He became surly, morose and overbearing and was left so completely to himself that his only companions were his pipe and his beer. He grew fat and frequently fell asleep sitting in his chair. One day while we were having a quiet game of cards, Jake woke up and, kicking the dachshund who had been asleep on his feet, said: "It's asleep, and you drinkin', and you sleepin', and you die, your dead! I eaten, and I drinkin', and I sleepin', and you die! So get up to hell you!"

Now, even McAvoy's worst enemies as well as his best friends, want to give him a chance for Heaven.

Some of you have climbed the mountain's top, and have drank at a small pool of water, and observed a tiny rivulet that trickled from the side of the pool. Descending the mountain you have seen a number of such rivulets joining a little brook. Several such brooks, forming a stream, which, uniting with other streams, forms a cascade of water which leaps over the abutting rocks.

And still further down the side of the mountain you hear the mighty roar of waters, as all the rivulets, brooks, streams and cascades have combined and form a mighty waterfall which dashes over the last precipice and into the valley beneath, and carrying all before it, rushes on to the sea.

"Such has been the progress of Mr. Dooley as he has made himself known to us. Though born and reared in the district, he was completely unknown to us except in his own neighborhood, when he first appeared with a few faithful followers and asked us to make him our king. Since then, with only the charm of the spirit of truth, he has won his way into our hearts. And I feel assured that if you will all take the trouble to vote, and will all vote as you feel, that John Dooley will be our next leader."

DOOLEY WAS BEATEN.

Well, Dooley was beaten about 700. His ineffective organization beat him on the day of election. But he made a wonderfully good fight, and showed what even an unknown man can do if he hustles.

BIG HOTELS.

I don't want to make our friend Fred Jordan of the Crellin Hotel jealous, but they can "grow" like hotels here than any that have as yet been nurtured in our glorious climate.

The new Astoria at Seventy-second street and Broadway in this city can accommodate 2000 guests. Rooms can be engaged on any number up to twenty, single or en suite. The guest can hire his own servants and be served by them with the cuisine of the hotel. In short, they desire, live just as if they had a private house to themselves and not be bothered about a cook.

I shall bring a close. However pleasant it may be to chat with you, others have their claims, so I will ring off. Your

HANLON GETS THE DECISION OVER YANGER.

Feather Weights Put Up a Fierce Battle for Rounds—Yanger Nearly Knocked Out in the Fifteenth.

For twenty long rounds Eddie Hanlon and Benny Yanger fought hard and desperately at Mechanics' Pavilion in San Francisco last evening and both failed in their cherished hope of knocking the other out. When the gong sounded at the end of the twentieth round Referee Eddie Smith declared Hanlon the winner.

There were some in the vast audience that thought Yanger had a shade the best of it and some that thought the decision ought to have been a draw but they were extremely few and the decision gave general satisfaction. Smith was in the ring with the boys all the time and was best able to judge who was the better man and gave an honest decision to the best man.

For the first half of the fight Yanger had all the best of it, doing nearly all of the leading, but his blows did no damage to speak of. True, he brought blood but Hanlon covered himself well and blocked off perfectly and the little bleeding from the nose did not bother him any. After the tenth the tide of the battle turned in Hanlon's favor and it was the Californian who was the aggressor from that time on. Yanger did not block as well as Eddie and the latter inflicted terrible punishment on the Italian's body.

It was plainly apparent to all that Hanlon has improved greatly but it was also apparent that he still lacks the experience which makes the successful knock-out fighter. Had the situations of the fifteenth round been reversed, Hanlon would have been knocked out quite decisively. As it was Eddie had the Chicagoan groggy and staggering about the ring with his guard down for a full minute and he flitted terrible punishment on the Italian's body.

Hanlon cut out the crouch which he has used ever since he became known in the professional ranks. He stood up straight, throwing off punches with his elbows and guarding his jaw with his mitts. He was at his best when he could get in close and put the hard blows to the body. In a way he resembles Fitzsimmons. His best blow is a short straight arm punch that only travels from six to ten inches but lands with a terrific force.

Yanger fought very much the same battle that he did before. He displayed the same cool generalship throughout and it was this that saved him in the fourth round and in the last two. Yanger worried the Californian not a little with a continual left jab on the face, which brought the claret and puffed the eyes, but they were not strong enough to do any worse damage. Time and again the Italian tried to land a right cross to the jaw, which has done such effective work for him before, but Hanlon was always there with his mitt which smothered the blow and made it harmless.

Up to the tenth round Yanger outpointed Hanlon clearly and Eddie's admirers began to wonder if their man was going to be a loser. In the eleventh round Hanlon rushed Yanger and took the leading into his own hands, quickly putting the Chicagoan on the defensive. Hanlon grew stronger as his opponent grew weaker until the fifteenth round when Hanlon landed a hard right to the jaw and Yanger went to the floor. It looked like a knock-out blow and the crowd waited with bated breath. At the count of nine Benny rose to a half standing position and was up by the time ten was called. It could be plainly seen that he was all in and it needed but one well directed punch to end the fight.

It was at this point that Hanlon showed his inexperience. Yanger was staggering about with his guard down and Hanlon in his anxiety led wildly and ineffectually. With his ever present generalship Benny managed to hold onto his opponent and the gong was the sweetest kind of music to his ears. It was the only clear knock-out in the fight and if Hanlon had had the experience he could have ended the fight right there.

He continued to have the best of the fighting until the end and in the last part of the twentieth round he again had Yanger going but it was too near the end and the gong saved him. Referee Smith then declared Hanlon the winner, which was the only thing he could do as it was plainly evident that the Californian was the stronger and had decided the fight.

It is a pity that the contest could not have ended in a knock-out for such endings are always decisive and leave no room for question. As it is the Eastern critics will continue to harp on the old story that an Easterner has no chance against a Californian in California.

Jack Evans and Harry Sheridan opened the evening's show with a five round preliminary which was declared a draw to the satisfaction of everyone present. Billy Otis and Frank Rafan met in the second preliminary and it only lasted two of the ten scheduled rounds. Otis sending his man down and out with a left to the mouth.

Another man who was in the place at the decision and had the following to say about the fight:

"He cannot hit as hard as Young Corbett, but he is by far the toughest man I ever met. I think he can take more than any one else I ever faced, and he is undoubtedly a great fighter. A lot of those blows that appeared to land on my body caught me square on my elbows. Some of them came home, though, and they hurt, but you know that no man could stand to be hit in the stomach as many times as he let at me. I believe that last night's battle was my best. I did not cover up as much as before, because I figured that no one had ever done me any damage and I was able to give as much as I was liable to receive. I would have liked to put him out, but I am satisfied with what I did. I could see the improvement myself."

Yanger stated that he had no kick coming. He is a good loser, as is shown, by the following:

"I was 3000 miles from home, with a change of climate and everything else, but I am not kicking. I lost, and I am not saying anything about it. The fifteenth round nearly finished me, but I stayed with it, and Hanlon knows that he has been in a fight. He knows that just as much as I do. He couldn't finish me when he had the chance. In the last round I was as strong as he was. He may have had a shade the best of it, but no more than I had when I went against him last, and that was declared a draw. But I have no kick to make. I lost. What is the difference? We got the loser's end on the fight, and we will go back East. All that I have to say is what any square fighter would say. I have no kick to make. I lost."

Following is Referee Eddie Smith's opinion of the contest:

"I thought Hanlon's lead was clear and clean. Yanger did the best work for a few rounds—but Hanlon was always the aggressor, and when he started to come there was no stopping him. Yanger led most of the time, when Eddie counted twice, and the last five rounds more than evened up any advantage that might have been Yanger's before. I cannot possibly see how the decision can be questioned. It would have suited me better to see the bout end with a knock-out, but I am satisfied that Hanlon won so far off that my duty was plain."

No game on account of inability of Oakland team to arrive in time.

"Dollie" Gray was feeling about right yesterday and pitched great ball for the Los Angeles team against San Francisco at Golden Gate. The team back of him gave good support and while the Stars were able to secure nine hits off of the big southpaw, they were unable to send a man around the bases. The Angels had their batting clothes on and hit little Lindsey for fourteen hits and tripped the bases seven times.

Fitzgerald tried to pitch the Sacramento team to victory at Portland yesterday afternoon and failed. He did nobly in every inning except the fifth when he went up in the air and before he came down to earth again, five Browns had covered the rubber. The final score was 6 to 2. Butler gave a good exhibition of twirling and the team back of him played a flawless game.

Oakland was not able to arrive in Seattle in time to play a game yesterday afternoon, consequently the game was postponed. The Recruits had a long jump to make from Los Angeles to Seattle.

Jim Morley, the manager of the Los Angeles baseball team, is looking for a few good amateurs to sign for next year. He has great faith in the California crop of rising ball players and points the finger of pride to Hall, Gray and Cravath, who were amateurs pure and simple last year and have made good in their professional careers. Morley has a great opinion of Joe Corbett and thinks he is the best pitcher in the world without exception. He expects to have both Corbett and Newton on his payroll next season.

Lindsey will not be able to pitch any more this season. He went into the box with a sore arm and pitched until the eighth inning when the injured member dropped limp to his side, having been thrown from his socket. It was quickly put back but it will be many a day before Lindsey can pitch again.

The Los Angeles team appeared on the grounds yesterday with brand new suits. The color is a dark gray-brown and the team presented a natty appearance.

Newton now leads the league pitchers by a safe majority. He has twenty-eight wins and only nine defeats to his credit. Knell is second with twenty-three wins and only five losses. Whalen is the real second as Knell has only played four games. Thielman and Hughes have both passed Hall, who went down the line considerably by losing the game he pitched. Corbett is coming fast and if he keeps up the present rate should finish the season among the first four. Following is the standing of all of the pitchers in the league:

Pitchers:	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Wheeler, L. A.	3	0	1.000

The trust is to remain in effect until Mrs. Soule is 30 years of age. Miss Alice Blake was appointed in Taylor's place as trustee.

BOLD HOLD UP IN SALT LAKE SALOON.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Sept. 30.—Six men all masked and armed entered a saloon near the Short Line depot early tonight and after compelling the seven men who were in the place to face the wall, with their hands elevated, appropriated all the money in sight, amounting to about $100.

Ben Friesse, the proprietor, attempted to resist but was promptly knocked down with a blow from one of the robbers' guns, and seriously injured. Another man who was in the place at the time turned slightly around while the robbers were going through the till and he, too, was given a blow over the head with a revolver.

Two men, suspected of being connected with the hold-up, are under arrest.

IVER JOHNSONS WON BOTH.

LOCAL AMATEURS PLAY GOOD BASEBALL—CHALLENGES ISSUED.

A fast game of baseball was played last Sunday between the Iver Johnsons and a team representing the Tailors' Union, in which the former won by a score of 6 to 1. The game was exciting and abounded with brilliant plays on both sides. Holmer the Iver Johnson pitcher, pitched a great game and allowed but four hits. In the afternoon the Iver Johnsons met and defeated the Monarchs, 9 to 2. It was one of the fastest and best games seen this season between amateur teams. "Demon" Ninnle did the slaw work for the Monarchs and did well, but Moadick, who officiated in a like capacity for the Iver Johnsons, was better, allowing but five hits to him.

NEW RAILROAD
STARTED IN IDAHO.

LEWISTON, Idaho, Sept. 30.—Greenville Holbrook and Eben Mounce left yesterday for a trip along the Upper Snake river, and it is said their purpose was to secure right of way for the Lewiston and Owyhee Company recently organized to build a road, Huntington to Lewiston. Holbrook is the Lewiston and Owyhee Company's representative here and has just received a telegram from M. C. Reed, president, announcing that the fund of $2,000,000 to build the road is available. It is stated the road is backed by the Union Pacific. A report from Elgin, says the Oregon Railroad and Navigation right of way agent is in the field perfecting titles preliminary to that company's rushing the completion of the Lewiston-Riparian road. The view is held here that this road will be completed in time to handle next year's crop out of the clearwater country.

TELLS OF FIGHT.

Elmhurst, Sept. 29, 1903.

Editor TRIBUNE. Dear Sir—I desire to correct a statement which appeared in your paper of Tuesday evening, September 29, about a fight, which took place at the Elmhurst power house on Sunday morning, September 27. According to the paper, I was under the influence of liquor, and it is said their purpose was to secure right of way for the Lewiston and Owyhee Company recently organized to build a road, Huntington to Lewiston. Holbrook is the Lewiston and Owyhee Company's representative here and has just received a telegram from M. C. Reed, president, announcing that the fund of $2,000,000 to build the road is available. It is stated the road is backed by the Union Pacific. REORGANIZE MALTING COMPANY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—A committee of stockholders of the American Maltting Company has sent out to 1200 shareholders circulars asking for promises to be used at the annual meeting in Jersey City November 12. The request is endorsed by holders claiming to represent nearly 55,000 shares and is based on a desire to reorganize the company.

IDORA PARK ATTRACTIONS

CHARLES B. STAILEY, COMEDIAN, AT IDORA PARK THIS WEEK.

The cloudy, and unsettled weather for the past two or three days has had no effect whatever on the attendance at Idora Park, which is itself a testimony of the able management of George Mackinnon. The fact that people will continue to go there in large numbers with rain threatening every moment shows that the bill is a strong one.

Mr. Shaw is the chaplain of the Oakland lodge, and expects a large delegation to be present. Special music will be rendered for the occasion, and the rector will on that occasion deliver a sermon especially intended for men.

BUTTERS BUYS PROPERTY.

Henry A. Butters has purchased from William G. Henshaw the property on San Pablo avenue formerly occupied by the Arcata House, which was burned. The purchase price is said to be about $50,000. A four-story building is contemplated for erection although only the first story will be built at present. It will be occupied as a vaudeville theater. Woodward and Watson made the sale.

DIVORCE SUIT IS BEGUN.

SAN LEANDRO COUPLE SEEKING SEPARATION IN SUPERIOR COURT.

The trial of the divorce proceedings of Jose S. Azaveda against Mary Azaveda was begun this morning before Judge Ogden and attracted the interest of a large number of the Portuguese residents of San Leandro, where both parties reside. Sixty witnesses have been subpoenaed in the case and the trial promises to be a bitterly fought one.

Jose Azaveda has charged his wife with cruelty and misconduct while she has answered his complaint with a general denial and alleged cruelty on his part as the cause of much of their suffering.

He is the owner of a saloon business in San Leandro which, it is alleged, pays him $75 a month and also owns real estate situated at Santa Rosa and Joaquin avenues in San Leandro. In answer to his complaint, Mrs. Azaveda asks that she be given the divorce and allowed $25 a month alimony.

Azaveda was the first witness to be called to the stand. He stated through an interpreter that he had married the defendant about a year ago but that he then found out that his wife drank to excess and that by her words, acts and numerous other ways, made life generally miserable for him.

The case was continued until the witnesses were all excluded from the court room. Azaveda is represented by Robinson & Robinson while the interest of Mrs. Azaveda is being cared for by Attorneys Lanagan & Lenos.

MARY BERNARD IS ACQUITTED BY JURY.

Mrs. Mary Bernard of San Leandro was acquitted by a jury of the charge of disturbing the peace in Judge Ellsworth's court yesterday.

The case was on appeal from Justice of the Peace San Leandro, who had denied Mrs. Bernard a jury trial. He heard the evidence himself and found her guilty of the charge and fined her $10. She appealed the case to the Superior Court and was granted a trial by jury and was acquitted.

RICHARD FOSTER'S WILL FILED.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The will of the late Richard W. Foster of Clinton, Mass., which has just been filed, contains a bequest of $25,000 for Harvard University, and under certain conditions the university becomes a still more substantial beneficiary.

To numerous missionary and church societies, Mr. Foster left sums of $10,000, while the residue of his estate he gave to the town of Clinton for the erection and maintenance of a building to be used as a clubhouse for the employees of the mills and factories and the other citizens of the town.

MISSING MAN IS LOCATED.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 30.—Word has been received here from Chicago that Oliver Anderson, secretary of one of the large dry goods houses here, who has been missing since last Thursday, is detained by the police there. Anderson was taken into custody yesterday, and apparently is worrying over some imaginary trouble. He said he came to Chicago direct from St. Louis, Henry W. Bergfeld, brother-in-law of Anderson, and J. J. Ikem, superintendent of the dry goods concern, departed hurriedly for Chicago last night to induce Anderson to return.

ON PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT.

Yesterday the people of San Francisco voted to issue nearly $18,000,000 bonds for public improvements. These improvements include street paving, sewers, school buildings, library building and site, hospital, jail, parks, children's play ground and a boulevard to connect Golden Gate Park with the Presidio reservation. Of the twelve propositions submitted ten carried. Two minor propositions were defeated by a narrow vote, failing a few hundreds short of the necessary two-thirds majority.

This should cause Oakland to sit up and take notice. We have been talking about public improvements for many years, but we have made none to speak of. San Francisco already has two splendid parks in the Golden Gate Park and the Presidio, besides numerous spacious, well improved squares, yet her people have voted to expend several millions for the extension and improvement of the city's park system. More than a million and a half is to be expended in purchasing a site and erecting a free library building. A free public hospital is to be erected at a cost of one million, and a number of splendid school houses are to be built.

It is significant that half the total bond issue voted is to be devoted to improving the streets and constructing a sanitary sewer system. Yet San Francisco sewers and streets are a great deal better than Oakland. No important thoroughfare there is in half as bad a condition as Telegraph avenue is.

Here it is argued that it is not the business of the community to pave the streets. It is claimed that the municipality cannot afford to spend half a million for a city hall, yet San Francisco proposes to spend half that much in building a jail and twice as much in erecting a hospital. We have no park and only a few small squares, but people shrug their shoulders and say we are too poor to buy one, or insist that the city should go into some sort of business before it attempts to beautify itself, improve its streets or provide itself with suitable public buildings. We are always doing what Colonel Irish says has been done with the West Oakland marsh. When it is proposed to make a park of it objection is made on the ground that the property should be used for factory sites. When it is proposed to use it for factory sites, it is urged that we want a park there. Thus the years go on and the marsh remains unimproved and a blight on the city. If a scheme is advanced for the improvement of Lake Merritt, objectors rise to say, "No, we want the money for a public park." When the purchase of a park site is suggested, a cry goes up for the improvement of Lake Merritt.

We are forever turning down the scheme immediately presented in favor of some scheme that has yet to come before us for practical consideration. In consequence we never do anything. We owe the only notable improvement made in recent years—the new library building—to the public spirit of the Ebell ladies and to private generosity.

The city hasn't even graced the grounds around the building. If Oakland would vote one-seventh the money San Francisco has voted for public improvements it would speedily be made the most beautiful city on the Pacific Coast. It would no longer be a parkless city, with dilapidated streets and tumble-down public buildings. What San Francisco is doing is being done by every city in the State. Oakland alone lags. How long is this thriftless, shiftless policy to continue?

MORE MONEY WANTED.

A correspondent desires to know if the demand for a larger volume of circulating medium could not be supplied by the government issuing more greenbacks. "If more money is needed," he asks, "why not let the government make it and issue the same for public use?"

against it, but it should be patent to every mind that the government cannot make money of paper and give it to the people who are hard pressed for cash. Money must be issued on an equivalent of some sort. If it is a promise to pay somebody must be responsible.

The bankers want more money. It will do no good for the government to print more greenbacks, for the greenbacks do not enter into circulation.

Mr. Poultny Bigelow advises Canada to annex the United States. Only a short time ago Mr. Bigelow was fighting the country with the statement that Emperor William of Germany could take possession of the land whenever he saw fit. Possibly Mr. Bigelow desires us to run for cover before we are beset by the hawks. As a protector, Canada appears to be somewhat undersized, however.

King Edward may find food for reflection in the fact that Charles the First lost his life, James the Second his crown and George the Third his wits in trying to rule Great Britain in the good old divine right fashion.

Democratic harmony in San Francisco seems to have been achieved on the basis of a division of the hominy.

A GOOD CITIZEN.

By an untoward accident Sacramento has been deprived of a notable character. We allude to Mrs. Elizabeth Shields, mother of Peter J. Shields, Superior Judge of Sacramento county. Mrs. Shields was killed by being run down in her buggy by a trolley car. The merits of the accident will be for the courts to decide.

Leaving aside the tragic circumstances of her death, the passage of Mrs. Shields deserves more than passing attention. For more than twenty years she had vindicated her claim to being one of the chief horticulturists of Sacramento county. Born of peasant ancestry in Ireland, she came to California when a mere girl, and she evinced her capacity by her skill in breeding stock and her success in cultivating and curing fruits. At the State Fair, she for many years, had an exhibit that challenged admiration. On her magnificent ranch she raised a variety of fruits that was a splendid advertisement of the climate and soil. In the stock paddock could be found horses and cattle reared by her that demanded praise. Mrs. Shields not only gave her attention to fruit-growing and stock raising, but she had a keen eye on the manner in which the county was governed. She knew a counterfeit at a glance. She was a Democrat, a hearty whole-souled Democrat, but her standards were those of efficiency and honesty. She knew better than most men the limitations and the cost of local government. She was a remarkable example of a capable woman, who was respected wherever she was known for her native ability and her sterling integrity.

Those who had the pleasure of knowing Mrs. Elizabeth Shields intimately will regret the untimely death of an original character, and all who ever came in contact with her will have pleasant recollections of a woman who was a queer mixture of native shrewdness and warm-hearted generosity. Any community is enriched by such a useful personality as Mrs. Shields. But she could not vote.

STREET CAR SERVICE RESUMED.

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich., September 30.—Street car service at the Canadian Soo, which has been suspended since the disturbed conditions here incident to the closing of the International Lake Superior Company's industry, was resumed today. One alleged leader of the rioters was arrested this morning. Additional troops from Toronto, numbering about 200, arrived at 9 o'clock. Soon afterwards a train left over the Alcona Central railroad for "Wilds Station" to bring back the week-end men who were left there Monday when the rioting broke out about the company's works. The train is in charge of twenty-five soldiers.

Later, Alexander Brunton, who says he has been in the employ of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company for three years, was arrested charged with intimidating and leading to riot. With Charles Morley, who was arrested near the office of the company this morning, he was brought before a magistrate and held and remanded for trial on October 5th, when the cases of the other men who have been arrested, charged with offenses of a similar nature, will be heard.

Brunton is accused by the police of going to the International Trust Company by the company and ordering the manager to remove the women before a plan to burn the factory was carried out.

CARMEN WILL GIVE SOCIAL.

AGENT BOWEN BRINGS NON-
UNION MEN INTO CAMP.

This evening in Gier's Hall on Fourteenth street the Carmen's Social and Benevolent Society will give a ladies' night. The society meets on the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month, while the Carmen's Union meets on the first and third. Every time there are five Wednesdays in one month the society on the fifth Wednesday entertains with a smoker or social session. Usually ladies are not invited to these functions, but this evening, because of a special occasion every Oakland street carman is invited to come and bring a lady. It matters not whether he be a member of the society or not. So long as he is a street railway employe he will be welcome.

The committee of arrangements consists of D. M. Bollman, George Snake and David Hughes.

The committee appointed by the Carmen's Union to revise the by-laws has completed its work. The executive committee will go over the work at its meeting next Monday evening so the new by-laws can be submitted to the union at its meeting next Wednesday night. The present by-laws were formulated hurriedly by the union when it was organized two years ago. They were all right for the time being, but the union has grown so much since then that they are entirely inadequate. So the union has appointed a committee to change the by-laws and completely change them when over a revision was deemed necessary.

TO GO EAST.
Maximilian Fischer, a well-known Emeryville millhand, leaves shortly on an extended Eastern trip. He is a great student of labor and socialist problems, and will attend the national convention of the Knights of Labor while on his trip.

BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL.
The regular weekly session of the Building Trades Council was the only meeting held last night. The meeting was held in the hall of the Building Trades Council, 1115 Clay street. The working cards for the current quarter were issued. It was decided to hereafter require business agents of all affiliated unions to attend the meeting of the Building Trades Council regularly. Applications for membership in the council were received from the hosiery engineers and carpenters' union, local No. 1163, of Berkeley. The requests were referred to the organizing committee.

ORGANIZED BRICKMAKERS.
Business Agent J. B. Bowen has returned from Antioch, where he organized the Holland sandstone brick yards. Seventy-five names were signed to an application for a charter from the Brick, Tile and Terra Cotta Workers' National Union. The company offered no opposition to the organizing of the yard. The bricklayers are greatly pleased at Mr. Bowen's success, for they have of late been laying a great deal of this hazardous non-union brick much against their will.

WILL ATTEND DETROIT MEETING.
Richard Cornelius, president of the San Francisco Street Carman's Union, left the fore part of the week to attend a meeting of the executive board of the international union. During his month's absence, Vice President W. J. O. Goldkuhl will act as president and business agent of the local union.

BUTCHERS.
At the last meeting of the Butchers' Union, Vice President Henry Behrman was chosen president to succeed George Lemmon. Robert McCarthy was elected vice president to succeed Behrman. One of the wage-earners' mass of the union and sixteen applications were filed. Business Agent McGovern reported that the work of uniting the wholesale meat markets was progressing rapidly.

DISTRICT COUNCIL OF TEAMSTERS.
The last meeting of the District Council of Teamsters held under the old regime of the International Brotherhood took place tonight at 856 Webster street. After October 1, the new international union of team drivers will assume control over all local unions, according to the decision of the convention held last summer at Niagara Falls.

LINEMEN.
F. J. McNulty, president, and W. H. Sherman, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, have arrived from Salt Lake, where they attended the recent convention of the international organization. They come to investigate the conditions of the strike of Linemen's Union, No. 151, against the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company, and to effect an adjustment of the differences, if possible. Mr. McNulty also expects to visit Washington and Oregon in the interest of the organization.

Last night the local linemen went over to San Francisco and heard the report of the delegates to the Salt Lake City convention. Tonight there will be a meeting in Oakland at Cooks' and Waiters' headquarters.

STABLEMEN.
The Stablemen's Union held a short session in Cooks' and Waiters' headquarters last night. A few sundry bills were allowed and communications from the Federation of Labor answered. There was no discussion concerning the practices of the laundry wagon drivers patronizing non-union stables. The members preferred to have the trouble settled by the Federated Trades Council, which now has the matter under consideration.

RETAIL DRIVERS.
The members of the local Retail Drivers' Union met last night at 1115 Clay street. The meeting was held in the hall of the Building Trades Council. The working cards for the current quarter were issued. It was decided to hereafter require business agents of all affiliated unions to attend the meeting of the Building Trades Council regularly. Applications for membership in the council were received from the hosiery engineers and carpenters' union, local No. 1163, of Berkeley. The requests were referred to the organizing committee.

EXPECTED CLASH AGAIN PUT OFF.
The International Association of Structural Iron and Bridge Workers at their annual convention here today voted unanimously to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor and the secretary was instructed to immediately apply for a charter in that organization. The action which probably will result in the union's affiliation with the A. F. of L. is one of the most important steps in the life of the association, which was organized with great enthusiasm.

The matters which threatened an open rupture between the Iron and Bridge Workers and the American Federation of Labor were discussed at length at the annual convention of the Iron and Bridge Workers, which was held here today. The matters which threatened an open rupture between the Iron and Bridge Workers and the American Federation of Labor were discussed at length at the annual convention of the Iron and Bridge Workers, which was held here today.

An important action was the concurrence, without debate, with the petition submitted by the Iron and Bridge Workers of Minneapolis, Denver, Salt Lake, Des Moines and Kansas City, recommending the union to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor. The action was taken by a vote of 100 to 0.

The following resolution, introduced by the Iron and Bridge Workers of Minneapolis, was adopted: "Believing, as we do, that the solving of the labor problem and the emancipation of the wage-earner's mass of this land must come through the demands of the union label, be it resolved, that the International Association of Structural Iron and Bridge Workers, in convention assembled, do call on all the members of the different unions to demand the union label on all goods and services purchased by them, and they do all that lies in their power to relieve the suffering of all others by demanding the union label."

LANGUAGE CAUSE OF TROUBLE.

MINISTERS ASK HUNGARIAN DIET TO ADJOURN BUT THEY DECLINE.

BUDAPEST, Sept. 30.—After formally announcing his resignation of the premiership in the lower house of the Hungarian Diet today, Count Hedevarsky asked the house to adjourn pending the construction of a new government. Immediately afterwards Count Hedevarsky, with the other ministers, left the house. The president, however, ruled that the resignation of the cabinet was not sufficient ground for an adjournment and he invited the house to continue its work.

Francis Kossuth, after expressing surprise at the fact that the ministry should have "struck," said he hoped a premier would be appointed who would vigorously contest the "interference" in Hungarian matters by Dr. von Kuefer, the Austrian premier.

The remark of the Austrian premier, which has most irritated the Hungarians, consisted of his statement in the Reichsrath that Austria was prepared to go to war in defense of Emperor Francis Joseph's declaration against the demand that the Hungarian language be used in orders given to soldiers of the Hungarian contingent of the Austro-Hungarian army.

In favor of a peaceful policy, but Herr Barabaz, who holds the majority of Kossuth's followers, is inclined to push the agitation to extremes.

The German merchants in Budapest are going about in fear of their lives on account of the threats of death leveled at them as a result of the language agitation in Hungary.

Count Hedevarsky, as the result of an adverse vote in the lower house of the Diet yesterday again submitted his resignation and telegraphed to Emperor Francis Joseph, begging for its acceptance, and today made the formal announcement of his resignation in the Diet.

POLICE COURT CALENDAR.

David Mitchell appeared this morning for Gertrude Coffin, arrested for vagrancy, and asked that the case go over for another day before entering plea and it was so ordered.

W. D. Byrd, having been turned over to Sheriff Tobin of Texas, and probably being out of the State by this time, had his name stricken from the police calendar.

Tenny Shurtan, arrested on complaint of F. H. Sturten for battery will be tried October 5th—a linemen case.

Cash Stickney and Dan Morrissey pleaded not guilty to the charge of creating a disturbance at Heim's saloon on Thirteenth avenue day before yesterday and demanded jury trial. The case was set for November 11th for trial.

MEPHISTOS PLAY GOOD BASEBALL.

The Mephistos journeyed to Berkeley Sunday and played a game of baseball with the crack "Neutrals" of that town and defeated them by a score of 10 to 2. The Mephistos were playing good ball and are winning the majority of their games. It looked like a shut-out for the Neutrals up to the eighth when a scratch hit was made with two men on base.

Catarrh

Whether it is of the nose, throat, stomach, bowels, or more delicate organs, catarrh is always debilitating and should never fail of attention.

It is a discharge from the mucous membrane when kept in a state of inflammation by an impure, commonly, scrofulous, condition of the blood.

SECOND ELEVEN ACCEPTS DEF.

BERKELEY, Sept. 30.—The challenge from the Sacramento-San Joaquin Valley League to play a game of football at Fresno on New Year's Day has been accepted by the University of California second eleven. It is the custom to reward the "scrub" team with some trip each season as a reward for its labors during the football season. This year the game promises to be one of the most important that has ever been scheduled for them, as it will rival in interest the annual inter-collegiate game.

CHESTER B. FERNALD MEETS WITH SUCCESS IN LONDON.

BERKELEY, Sept. 30.—After a successful stay of five years in London, Chester B. Fernald, a brilliant author, playwright and critic, has returned to his California home, accompanied by his talented wife, who was Miss Josephine Harke. Mr. Fernald's greatest success, perhaps, was the dramatization of his book, "The Cat and the Cherub," which made an exceedingly clever Chinese play. The play was gotten out about the time that the "First Born" by Francis Powers was having its success in London. Fernald's play arrived first and met with immediate success. After remaining here for a short time, Mr. and Mrs. Fernald will leave for Santa Barbara for a stay of two years, during which time Mr. Fernald will write a book of Irish sea stories under the caption of "Under the Jack-staff."

FORM A NEW GUN CLUB.

BERKELEY BUSINESS MEN WILL INVITE THEIR FRIENDS TO EXCLUSIVE PRESERVES.

BERKELEY, Sept. 30.—Three well known citizens of this city, Guy Hyde Chick, G. A. Wanger and C. L. Hugkins have organized the Madison Gun Club, selecting the latter as president, treasurer, and secretary respectively. The unique feature of the club is that it will have no more than three members, who have already secured the exclusive right to 123 acres of marsh land in the country to the north of this city. The trio of sportsmen will entertain extensively in the commodious clubhouse that has been erected on the preserves.

ARTHUR L. PRICE IS THE AUTHOR OF CATCHY STANZAS FOR STUDENTS.

BERKELEY, Sept. 30.—Arthur L. Price, of the class of 1904 of the University of California, has written a new piece entitled the "Campus Song," which is rendered to the air of "The Low Back Car." The song, which will be sung by the men of the Senior Class at the regular singing tomorrow night, is as follows:

This morning on the campus;
The sun is out a bit.
The sky is blue and a golden hue
In the heart of man is lit.
Yet we must to classes go.
To Law, or Chem, or Trig.
If we're not there it shows we care
For our studies not a fig.
But we must go to school to glow,
And we have begun to know.
To get a degree is a triviale,
When the sun has begun to glow.

This afternoon on campus,
The team is on the line.
The bleachers call to the punted ball,
And play has the vim of wine;
And so we must sit out and cheer
For men in football rig.
If we're not there it shows we care
For our studies not a fig.
For our studies not a fig,
So cheer for the blue and gold,
And players forever bold,
And yell for the men; again and again
An Oski for blue and gold.

This evening on the campus,
And we are seniors all.
The team is on the line.
We sit and sing and our cares we fling
From the steps of Old North Hall.
We sing to California.
Our college brave and big.
If you're not there it proves you care
For your college not a fig.
So sing on the steps with me,
In an evening of jollity.
Let studies go hang, and be strong with the gang.

And sing on the steps with me.

Interesting Experiments Are Now Being Carried on By Professors at College.

BERKELEY, Sept. 30.—As the result of the successful inoculation of ground squirrels with a virus that is causing their extermination in large numbers in Alameda and Contra Costa counties, experiments are being made at the University of California with the view of developing a virus that will prove fatal to rats.

As in the case of the squirrel virus, a disease will be produced, that will be harmful to the pests but that will have no ill effects on human beings. If the experiments are successful the substance fatal to rats will be distributed throughout the State for the purpose of making a concerted warfare on the rodents.

It is said that the experiments have already reached a partially successful stage.

GOLDEN GATE SHOEMAKER IS BUNCOED BY OLD MAN.

GOLDEN GATE, September 30.—A Steinman, the local shoe dealer, will in the future put all shoe-makers on the taboored list. After an experience which he had with one several days ago he can no longer put any trust in them. It seems that last Friday an old man, apparently about seventy-five years of age, applied to Steinman for a room which the latter let him have.

The man, who by the way, gave his name as Miller, and his residence as San Jose, told Steinman that he was working at Dr. J. B. Wood's house, repairing some mattresses. On the strength of these representations Steinman gave him board and lodging Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The old fellow had promised to pay up Monday morning at the latest, and when he neither put up or showed up, Steinman went to Dr. Wood's house and made inquiries. The latter assured the shoe man that he knew nothing of "Miller" or his whereabouts. Steinman doesn't care for the few dollars lost, but he doesn't relish the idea of having been imposed upon.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—A splinter no more than half an inch long which penetrated the palm of John Zimmer's hand while he was working at his trade as carpenter, has caused his death from lockjaw in its worst form. The fatal splinter was from a hemlock board. Zimmer's hand swelled to twice its normal size in a few minutes and the doctors were unable to check the poison.

SAN LEANDRO CITIZENS TALK OVER WELFARE OF THEIR TOWN.

SAN LEANDRO, September 30.—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade was held Monday evening in the town hall. There was a long discussion about the recent appointment of three commissioners to represent Alameda county at the World's Fair in St. Louis. The general opinion seemed to be that it would be a good idea to have one commissioner selected from the interior of the county. Such a man would be familiar with the fruit and vegetable industry and better able to represent the farming community than a person living in Oakland, not in touch with the ranch owners and unacquainted with agricultural conditions. Those present believed there were many men living in the San Leandro valley who would be very capable representatives of the farming community. There seemed to be a feeling that the smaller towns of the county had been left out in the cold in the appointment of the commissioners.

The attention of the board was called to the rumor that the Southern Pacific Railroad Company was contemplating the exploiting of the section of Alameda county along the broad gauge track to Niles. As soon as the Santa Fe ferries were started, it was conceded that the new line would get almost all of the Berkeley and Piedmont traffic. To offset this, the officials of the Southern Pacific Company were seriously considering a plan to boom the eastern part of the county. It would be widely advertised and prospective property buyers induced to locate in this section. Hourly trains to San Francisco would be put on so the residents could go to and from their business in the city with little trouble or waste of time.

HAYWARDS LIBRARY TRUSTEES ORDER LIST OF TWENTY-FIVE VOLUMES.

HAYWARDS, September 30.—The Board of Library Trustees met Monday evening for the regular monthly session. The usual batch of miscellaneous bills was allowed. Mrs. L. Prowse, the librarian, purchased twenty-five of the latest books published, and she was instructed by the board to go to San Francisco and purchase them. In case she cannot find them at the books, she was given power to purchase such others as she saw fit to make out the twenty-five. About a quarter of a hundred books are now purchased every month by the library. The librarian makes a note of all volumes asked for by the patrons that are not on the shelves. Just before the monthly meeting of the board, she makes out from these notes a list of twenty-five books. This list she submits to the trustees, who review it and then instruct her to purchase the books. In this manner the volumes most sought for by the patrons of the library are procured as fast as asked for. A small library may thus be made to give very good satisfaction.

TRUSTEES ORDER A MODERN APPLIANCE FOR EMERYVILLE.

EMERYVILLE, September 30.—As a result of the Town Trustees' meeting last night, Clerk Coburn is now making plans to purchase an up-to-date fumigating machine for use in preserving the health of this place.

The clerk was authorized to do this only after a stormy debate as to the propriety of the town of Emeryville fumigating the Rose residence, which was recently visited by diphtheria. It seems that the house is in the town limits of Emeryville, but the rear end of the lot runs beyond the town boundaries and juts into West Berkeley. After a heated argument a fumigation was ordered.
